

SUNDAY 4TH JULY 2021

ST COLUMBAS FAMILIES NEWSLETTER

Hello Families of St Columba's,

Congregational Picnic

We had a really lovely afternoon in Hyde Park at the congregational picnic last Sunday. Following on from Sunday School activities in the morning we were fortunate that the rain stayed away and a good gathering of young and older, enjoyed a very relaxed afternoon of socialising and sporting ventures. Big thanks from us all to Gary and others who made it all happen.

Youth Survey

As introduced last week there is currently a Youth Survey ready for completing. Definitely check out the little film that introduces it. The Youth Committee and the Sunday School team are exploring the possibility of creating a new youth group and we need your help to create something that works for you! Grown-ups, we'll need your help with the survey, but we would love the answers to come from the youngsters aged 9 and above. Please visit www.stcolumbas.org.uk/youth-survey to watch a short video and to complete the survey before 23 July 2021.

Questions for William

On Sunday 11th July we will welcome our new Associate Minister, Revd William McLaren to his first Sunday at St Columba's. The start of another new chapter at our church. This is where I would like your help. In the families' talk at the beginning of the service I would like to ask William some questions to help introduce himself. So, what questions would you like me to ask him? Favourite football team, how old is he, why come to London, best holiday, can he sing? Anything you can think of that would be fun to ask him and interesting to know. Please send any suggestions to me minister@stcolumbas.org.uk by Thursday 8th July.

Women Making History, until 11th July

Final reminder: Women Making History Exhibition at London Scottish House Women Making History is an extraordinary exhibition that brings together artworks inspired by banners of the suffrage movement and highlights the continuing struggle to achieve gender equality. In June 2018, tens of thousands of women marched through the streets of Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh and London to mark 100 years since the first UK women were allowed to vote. This mass-participation artwork, PROCESSIONS, was commissioned by 14-18 NOW and produced by Artichoke. Now you can see these pieces up close for one exhibition only, hanging in the Drill Hall of London Scottish House, Westminster. Tickets are free but you require to register: <https://londonscottishhouse.org/events/women-making-history-exhibition/>

And finally, thanks to Fiona for this week's activities.

Whether you are shouting at the tele for footballing or Wimbledon reasons, or steering well clear of all that.... have a great weekend.

See you on Sunday,

Angus & the Sunday School Team
